GRAND JURY IN COUNTY CHARGED PROBE AFFAIRS

Klan Activities in Rural Communities under Charge to Jury.

ROFF CONDITIONS UP

Petting Parties to be Probed According to Charge to Jury.

With twelve men named to beat the burden of investigation of alleged lawless conditions in Pontotoc county and instructions dealing with matters ranging from murder to peace disturbances set out in a charge from the bench, a grand jury was today preparing to go in to secret session tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Twenty-four men, summoned for grand jury service appeared before District Judge J. W. Bolen this morning and from that number twelve men were named to conduct the probe of county affairs.

With H. J. Young named as foreman of the jury the following list of jurors were ordered for service: Tom Constock, R. H. Bryant, T. N. Nickell, John Edwards, A. T. Keltner, E. A. Allen, L. L. Conlee, Thom. L. Ivey, J. L. Melton, H. J. Young, foreman, S. L. Jackson, W. Vandergriff.

In naming the personnel for the grand jury, the question seeking to ascertain the membership of any of the jurors summoned in any secret organization, was asked from the bench. Three jurors were interrogated and denied membership in any secret organization.

Conditions in general over the county were set out for investigation in the charge to the jury but especially the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in the rural communities in which the charge was brought out that the Klan visits the Egyptian community had had a detrimental effect on a religious meeting.

Conditions at Roff were also mentioned in the charge to the jury, reports being set out to the effect that an officer had been brought to the community, who dealt in beating up citizens of that community.

The charge also touched upon a new angle and jurors were admonished to search into reports that petting parties were being conducted on public highways in the county, disturbing the general morale of the community.

Approximately 35 witness subpoenas had been placed in the hands of Undersheriff P. H. Deal Wednesday afternoon demanding their appearance for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. While subpoenas cover all parts of the county, a large percent will bring witnesses from Roff, Egypt community, Ahlosso and Homer.

Weird Tom-Tom Sounds Out Traditional Stomp Dance

Modernism marked time last night at the home of Widow Walden six miles northeast of the city, while the Indian tom-tom lifted its weird beat to remind the veil of civilization was being lifted for the traditional stomp dance and the Feast of Pashofa.

While sickness lurked within the walls of the log-hewn abode, all the weird attack on the spirits of ill health was sounded by the tom-toms and the chanting of weird songs in the primitive dance of the sons and daughters of warriors of 050.

After fires had been kept burning for the past three days and the descendants of tribesmen over the county had been notified, the orgy of primitive enchantment began at dusk yesterday and continued unabated through the long hours of the night.

"Me think em Pashofa all gone" the words of a young buck indicated that the feast had assumed strenuous proportions during the early hours of the evening.

The smoldering embers of logs in front of the Walden cabin during the late hours of the evening, did not repress the spirit of the dance and descendants of the pioneer Americans from the fat squaw to the squabby little papoose stomped in primitive glee throughout the night.

While cars jammed along the highway in front of the Walden cabin and hundreds of Ada residents viewed the celebration during the night, no attention was paid to their coming or going by the participants in the tribal observance. They continued the moving circle around the tom-tom wielder with apparent disregard for the curious eyes of visitors.

A county official, who visited the scene last night reported that brawls or disturbances of any sort were seldom and reported that visitors were apparently welcomed at the dances.

A series of celebrations have been held throughout the county and will continue through the harvest season.

PRINCE SEEKING REST IN CANADA

Under Title of Baron of Renfrew, Prince Seeks Simple Life.

(By the Associated Press)
QUEBEC, Sept. 12.—The Baron of Renfrew arrived in Quebec today.

The Baron of Renfrew is none other than his royal highness, the Prince of Wales, heir to England's throne.

Tired of being hailed as the future ruler of the British empire the prince chose one of his many other titles to travel under and thus escape the formalities accorded a personage of royal blood.

In short he wanted to dodge the plaudits of the multitudes in Canada and quickly to be on his way to an Alberta ranch where he purposes to eat boarding house hash and other simple fare.

But a prince is a prince, even though he be only the Baron of Renfrew, figured the residents of Quebec. Therefore, a princely welcome was in order.

Bright and early the crowds gathered at the pier to greet Baron Renfrew and as the Empress of France reached the dock a lusty cheer was given.

Being only a baron the Prince of Wales did not even use a special cutter in which to reach the shore. There were no officials to greet him in an official capacity, but the unofficial one made up or that.

On the ranch Baron Renfrew will live as a rancher. He will ride western horses on a western saddle will be in bed early and rise early. In short, he will lead a simple life.

ALLEGED BANDIT TAKES OWN LIFE

Cornered by Sheriff Alleged Fugitive Shoots Self at Restaurant.

(By the Associated Press)
Marshall, Tex., Sept. 12.—Cornered by Sheriff Sanders in a lunch room early today a man about 25 years old, believed by local officers to have been the bandit who robbed a bank at Mooringsport, Louisiana of approximately $5,000 yesterday, shot and killed himself.

The robber escaped from Mooringsport in a stolen automobile to Waskom, 20 miles east of here, near the Louisiana line. The driver of a delivery truck from Shreveport told the officers that the man had asked him for a ride at Sottdale, 7 miles east of here, early this morning. The driver at first refused the man a ride, he said, but at the point of a pistol he was forced to bring him here.

Upon his arrival here the driver notified the sheriff.

Sheriff Sanders found the man in the restaurant. After searching him he allowed him to finish his meal. When the sheriff was called to the door the young man drew a pistol and ran to a room in the rear of the building. The sheriff covered the room with a gun and sent for aid, meanwhile guarding the door. A pistol shot was heard and the man was found dead with a bullet wound in the side of his head.

The only clue to his identity was a money order bearing the name of Frank Erwin.

Child's Dress Leads Mother Seek Police

(By the Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—A mother forgot the color of her child's dress—and then things began to happen.

From police headquarters motor cycle rider policemen hastened to the spot where the child was supposed to have been left.

Chief Jenkins took a personal hand in the search, dropping all business to supervise the work of dispatching riders to the scene.

The mother had left two children at a nursery maintained in connection with a cooking school. When she called for them she called for a pink clad child and a blue one. The pink dress was located at once. Nobody could find the blue one. The weeping mother finally returned to the nursery and there found the missing child clad in white.

"Oh, yes, I remember now," she said, "I put her in white today."

COUNTY FAIR IN FULL SWING NOW

Livestock Entries and Exhibits Expected to Pass Records.

The county fair opened this morning according to schedule but the work of arranging the exhibits was heavy and most of the day has been spent in putting them into place. Tomorrow morning everything will be in smooth running order and ready for any and all visitors.

The livestock entries are much more numerous than ever before. The poultry display is also larger than ever before, about double that of last year, it was stated.

The various schools of the county have shown more interest than ever before in the matter of exhibits and more schools than usual are putting displays in the building set aside for them.

So many of the farm and home exhibits were not yet in place when the News reporter visited the grounds this afternoon that it is impossible to say how numerous they will be, but the quality of those in place was most excellent.

Tomorrow will be Ada day and most of the business houses will close part of the afternoon in order that everyone may have an opportunity to see the fair.

The races of tomorrow promise to be of an exciting nature and considerable interest is being manifested in the outcome of some of them.

Another feature will be a drill by the Ada National guard.

BOOZE SALES IN U. S. BRING TAX

Bermuda Enjoys Payment of Over Fifteen Millions in Taxes.

(By the Associated Press)
HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 12.—Americans, who buy liquor from bootleggers contributed indirectly $15,204,800 to the government of Bermuda in the form of an export tax of $2.40 on each case shipped from the island between April, 1922, and September 1, last.

During this period rum runners have taken away from Bermuda more than 60,000 cases as well as 41 barrels of liquor, all of which has found a market in New York and vicinity. This is a total of more than 750,000 bottles, which, at the average price of $8.00 per bottle would mean a return of $6,000,000 on cargoes that were bought here for about $1,000,000.

Most of the business has been carried on by a New York man who so far has been successful in landing all of his shipments.

The purchase prices of this man's cargoes amount to $468,615, or 30,246 cases amounting to 363,950 bottles, which, if they retailed at $8.00 each, brought a return of $2,903,616. His schooner carries a crew of nine men and has made 11 trips.

In addition to this dealer two others with headquarters in New York are in the Bermuda trade, one of whom has made four trips and the other three. Nine other vessels have left Bermuda with cargoes of liquor for delivery in the United States. Three have come to grief by falling into the hands of American revenue cutters. The other six have not returned.

NEGRO EXODUS AT SOUTH BEND

Letter of Warning Causes Excitement in Indiana Town.

(By the Associated Press)
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 12.—Quiet prevailed in the negro section here today following a night of excitement which was marked by the exodus of between 1,000 and 1,500 negroes from the city, according to police reports.

The commotion among the negroes followed the receipt of a letter by one of the members of the community which was said to have warned the negroes that an attack against them was being planned.

The letter also is said to have stated that a negro being held for the alleged slaying of a local policeman was to be taken from the jail by a mob.

Many of the negro residents became frightened and are said to have fled from the city while others were reported to have armed themselves. The action of the latter led to the issuance of an order by the police stopping the sale of arms.

Officers in discussing the situation expressed the opinion that the letter, which was unsigned, was the work of a crank and that no disturbance will occur.

CITY BUILDERS TO HAVE FULL YEAR

Chamber of Commerce Outlines Campaign for Year at Tuesday Meeting.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting Tuesday evening planned rapid fire and effective work for the fall and winter.

A committee to work with the county commissioners in getting a road opened up and in good condition from Ada to Pontotoc and Connersville was appointed. This piece of work is considered especially desirable, as residents down there want to get to Ada.

The matter of locating a broom factory in the city was taken up and considered favorably. It is believed this factory will be in operation before the end of the year.

A white way along Main street is to be pushed, the Chamber officials being highly in favor of it.

A committee to help boost for and build good roads was also appointed.

A booster pamphlet is to be printed in the immediate future and distributed where it will do the most good. This will show what Ada is doing and can do and point out the good things here.

The fact that work is in progress on the bridge across the river was one of the rejoicing incidents. This it is believed, will be one of the most important things the city has obtained in a long time. Several families are already planning to come here, as they can go back and forth to their business and farms by using this bridge.

SNEAD APPROVES BILL FOR LEGISLATIVE CALL

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 12.—Petitions presented by Campbell Russell, former chairman of the state corporation commission, for the initiation of a bill which would empower the legislature to convene without a call from the governor, were approved today by Secretary of State Snead.

Coincidentally it was learned that Governor Walton asked the attorney general for an opinion as to the legality of the special election on October 2 which the executive called for submission of five amendments to the state constitution.

The attorney general said today he had heard that the October election is threatened by injunction proceedings. He added that he had already advised the election board not to approve a contract for the ballots until the legality of the election can be determined.

Dysentery is prevalent. The government informed the American embassy that the relief personnel enroute would be welcomed.

American marines have landed and erected a barkey and automobile repair shop at the American embassy.

The duty on building materials has been removed. Reactionary earthquakes have fallen in number to 20 daily.

TOKIO, Sept. 12.—Work of clearing up the debris of the earthquake and fire is under way in Tokio. The street car system's employees have been mobilized and are clearing the tracks of the buried cars and here and there workmen are repairing such of the damaged buildings as can be made habitable so that the refugees may have shelter.

While some foreigners, more pessimistic than the Japanese, have let it be known that they intend to transfer their business institutions to Osaka or Kobe, abandoning Tokio and Yokohama, or reducing their enterprises there to branches, the Japanese men declare their intention to make the capital a greater city than ever.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Practically all foreign residents of Yokohama now have arrived at Kobe, according to a cable received today by the state department from Consul Dickover. The refugees are being taken care of, he said, and the relief committee at Kobe has the situation well in hand.

Medical assistance is being administered from American naval ships at Kobe and food and other necessary supplies are expected from Hong Kong, Manila and Shanghai.

Many Japanese refugees are also arriving in Kobe.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—With the $5,000,000 goal now exceeded, the Japanese relief commission of the American Red Cross continued its campaign for funds as late advice on the extent of the catastrophe convinced officials of the organization that the sum asked would be inadequate for the relief needed.

WALTON TO VISIT ZONE OF BATTLE

Business Men of Tulsa Now Hold Hopes of Relief in War Zone.

TULSA, Sept. 12.—Hopes of local business men for the lifting of martial law in Tulsa county were raised today when it was learned that Gov. Walton was on his way here to make a survey of conditions.

It will be the executive's first visit since he placed the county under military rule more than a month ago in his campaign to put an end to mob activities and bring to justice members of flogging parties.

The question of withdrawal of troops is expected to hinge upon the governor's personal observations and the result of conferences between him and the chamber of commerce representatives. He also is expected to obtain the views of Adjutant General Markham, who has been conducting the military inquiry into the whippings.

Gov. Walton left Oklahoma City last night making every effort to keep his mission a secret.

Representatives of the local chamber of commerce had a conference at the capital yesterday at which it is understood they induced the governor to come to Tulsa and make a personal inspection of the situation.

GRAND JURY IN COUNTY CHARGED PROBE AFFAIRS

late they have been invading the rural communities for membership and invading the rural churches in open disregard of the opinion and rights of the rural inhabitants, a large percent of whom have a very bitter opposition to this dance cap regalia, and very serious complaint has been made from points over the county, and especially at Egypt school house, where about thirty invaded a protracted meeting and scared women and children into a state of high nervousness, and especially the organizer who had to leave for home on account of a fright at the sight of this dance cap party.

The best citizens have no more right to disturb the peace of our people than ordinary criminals, and you are instructed that if these invasions, if it frightens or disturbs one member of the congregation, makes the entire party guilty of disturbing religious worship, and I want to urge upon you to make a most searching investigation of invasions of the rights of rural communities to meet and worship their God.

A state of lawlessness, oppression, tyranny and perpetual confusion obtains at the town of Roff. It has been brought to our attention that a non-resident bad man has been carpetbagged into Roff as the town Marshall, and that during his few weeks of officialdom he has beat and lacerated some five or six citizens of the town of Roff and cursed and abused other citizens including women on the public streets. Tyranny and oppression have always been directly applied by the man who carries a gun and is very un-American. An officer has no right to resort to force until every other means have been exhausted to subdue a law violator. The law gives them power to summons every man in a town to aid in subduing a law violator, and the law makes it his duty to do that before he resorts to assault and battery; however, the right of self defense is ever present with an officer, which means that he is entitled to use such force as is absolutely necessary to defend himself against an unlawful attack, but has no right to make an assault for any other purpose.

Our attention has further been called to the fact that the Town Council of the town of Roff is fully cognizant of these depredations, if such have been committed and acquiesced therein, and you are instructed that if you find such a condition to exist as is reported, and that the town Council retains said officer after full knowledge of his unlawful acts, that such in law is official oppression and is a grounds for removal, not only of said town marshal but the town council of the town of Roff, and I know of no higher duty on the part of officials than to protect the public from official oppression, as official oppression is the forerunner of the over-throw of the constitutional legal rights of the public.

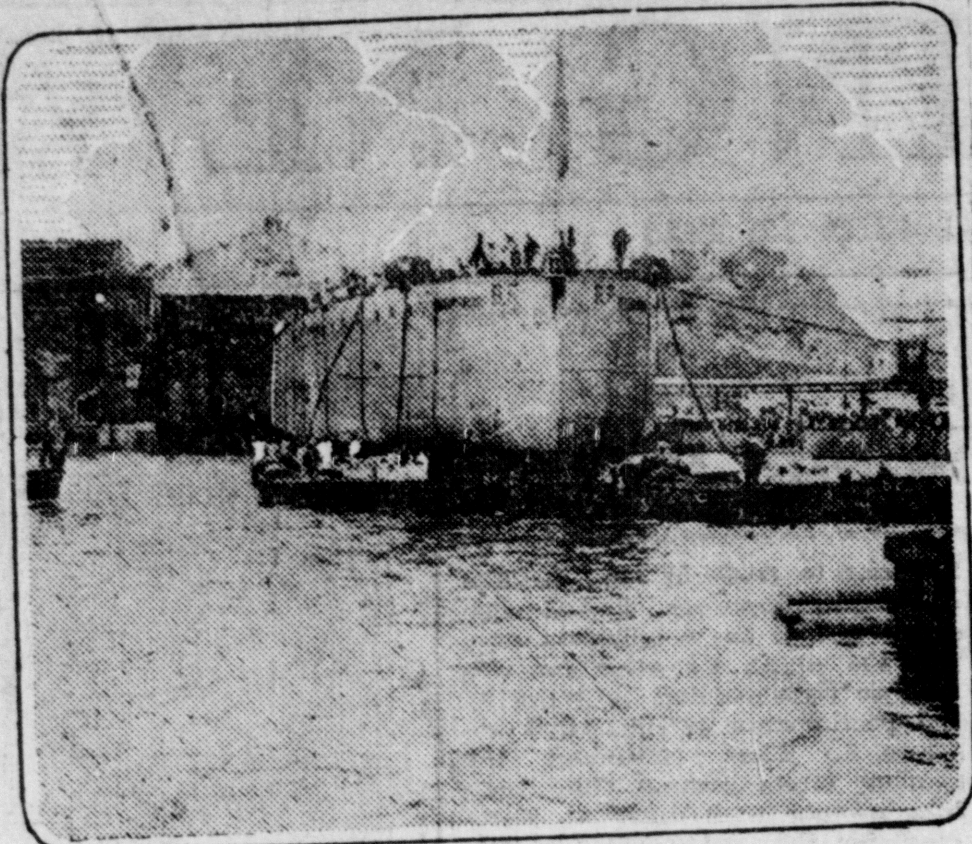

Our attention has been further called to the fact that five men wearing dance caps and winding sheets visited a citizen of Roff and gave him instructions and orders. Under the spirit of our institution orders are taken only from the law, and you are instructed if three or more persons enter into an agreement to threaten any citizen from exercising all of his rights and privileges, or to intimidate him from such exercise, either by words or acts, that such is a disturbance of the peace, and if you find that such a disturbance has occurred you will not hesitate to indict.

Our attention is further called to the fact that after the sad recent tragedy at Roff that five men followed the perpetrator or perpetrators of said tragedy and found them in possession of a deputy sheriff, and that one of them demanded the possession of said prisoners, and that said parties returned to Roff under a promise to send a car to said deputy sheriff for the purpose of transporting said prisoners to the common jail of the county, and that after much delay several car loads of men returned armed with shot guns, rifles and pistols, and upon finding that said prisoners had been removed that a thorough search of the fields and pastures and surrounding territory in search of said prisoners was made. This has the appearance of an organization of a mob to take said prisoners, and if you find the facts and circumstances sufficient to justify such a conclusion it is your bounden duty to indict all of said parties.

Our attention has been called to many acts of violence on the part of officers of the county, including several towns, and you are instructed if you find that any officer has unlawfully struck any violator or supposed violator of the law without a lawful right that such is official oppression in exaggerated form, and is a ground for removal from office and you will make a thorough investigation of all acts of violence on the part of public officers. Public officers are for the purpose of protecting the people not only in their person but in their property and in their peace, and when they invade these rights by unlawful assaults it becomes tyranny, the greatest destroyer of the rights and privileges of the people, and cannot have too serious consideration from your hands.

It has been further brought to our attention that the National Guard of Roff is headquarters for the Ku Klux Klan and that they keep their dance caps and other paraphernalia there, and that they

Union Mine Workers Claim Lithuanian Bolsheviks in Herrin Massacre Frame-up

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Eighty-six Lithuanian Bolsheviks led the Herrin massacre of non-union Illinois miners, the United Mine Workers of America charges in making public today the third of a series of articles exposing an alleged plot by Moscow Communists to gain control of organized labor in the United States and Canada, stage a revolution and overthrow the existing governments.

The mob leaders—67 of them—were members at Herrin of the Bolshevik Lithuanian branch of the Communist party of America, according to the miners' article, 19 other members of the same party were imported as agents to foment the attack on the strip mine of the Southern Illinois Coal Company which culminated in the violent death of 22 men in June last year.

"This revolting, inexcusable crime was fomented, promoted and caused solely by Communists," says the writer. "It was a carefully planned affair, schemed with all the diabolic cruelty and disregard for law that characterizes the Communist movement."

William Z. Foster, promoter of the "one big union" idea in America, is alleged to have been the dominating figure in events preceding the massacre, numbering among his aides Jack Carney, Chicago editor of the radical Voice of Labor, Nick Dozenburg, Carney's business manager, Arne Swabeck of the central executive committee Communist Party of America, Oscar Larson of the Young Communist League, Gus Fraenkel, "Red" worker among rail employees Charles Krumbein, district Communist official, and Nels Kjar, convicted in Chicago courts for conspiring against the government during the war.

The author's history of the massacre follows:

"For more than seven weeks preparations had been in progress in Franklin and Williamson counties to bring about the attack upon strike breakers and armed guards at the strip mine. Violence and disorder were rampant in southwestern Pennsylvania. Communist groups in New York, Cleveland and Chicago were active in their efforts to turn the strike in Southwest Pennsylvania into a great revolutionary movement in which the original causes for the cessation of work in the mines would be lost sight of and an armed insurrection having for its purpose the establishment of a Bolshevik dictatorship in this country and enforced recognition of the Russian dictatorship and the Communist International would be brought about. Simultaneous Outbreaks Planned.

"The plan was to have simultaneous uprisings in southern Illinois and, if possible, in the vicinity of Bellaire, Ohio, which also was a hotbed of Communist agitation and propaganda, and in the region surrounding Uniontown, Pa.

"A telegram sent to local union have free access to the guns and ammunition in said Armory, and that the officers of said National Guard have armed the citizens with the guns belonging to the state and that said citizens went out upon the streets and violated the weapon law of the state, and you will make a thorough investigation of this and see if same is true and if the law has been violated, and if so, indict all parties connected therewith.

Our attention has been further called to a condition that is very destructive to the morals of this county and community, spooning on the public highways and in public, and when the young folks or the old folks for that matter become so forgetful of the rights of the public as to put on these unseemly sights on the public highway that violates the law the morals of the community are greatly jeopardized, and if there has been any law violation upon this line you will thoroughly investigate same.

The county attorney will be with you and advise you as to the law and as to your methods of deliberation.

J. W. BOLEN,
District Judge.

officials at Herrin by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, placing workers of the strip mines in the category of "strike breakers" was shrewdly twisted and distorted, according to the boasts of the Communists leaders at Chicago, into an "invitation to attack the strip mines and the workmen employed there."

"Officials of the United Mine Workers had no intimation that an attack was contemplated, or that a conspiracy within the Communist Party of America existed at the time to precipitate a tragedy, such as took place the day after the telegram was received from President Lewis.

Agitation under the active efforts of the Communists during May and June. The strike area in southern Illinois was carefully examined and the points where riot, violence or armed insurrection might be started were charted and catalogued. In the list of these places were Christopher, Zeigler, Sesser and Herrin.

"With the local Lithuanian miners as a nucleus, a Communist Party chapter was organized in Herrin, holding meetings secretly in the Lithuanian language but taking instructions from agents of Dozenburg in the offices of Carney at Chicago. Quietly and stealthily they worked among the idle miners at Herrin, preaching armed attack upon the strip mine."

Union strikers at Herrin inquired of President Lewis the status of the non-union miners who continued working the strip mine while the national strike was in progress. In a telegram on June 20 he classified them as strike-breakers.

"This telegram was pounced upon by the Communist agents and distorted into an excuse for an attack upon the strip mine," continues the narrative. "The workers there were captured and, under the leadership of the 19 Communist agents who, according to Dozenburg, had been imported for the purpose of starting insurrection and revolution, the men were shot down."

cess the Communists are said to have redoubled activity among railroad, marine-transport and farm workers. The seamen already were organized as "one big union," so the minimum of effort was necessary in that direction. The miners also were "one big union," ripe for capture by the Moscow agents. But there were four big brotherhoods and 16 unions on the railroads, so, "in order to control them as a unit and mobilize them into the Foster one-union scheme, the 'Minnesota Plan' for a single 'departmental industrial union' was evolved."

Railroads Next Objective
The railroads became the next objective. The Herrin massacre had demonstrated what the miners would do if properly chaperoned. The plan now was to bring about in some quarter, preferably a vital railroad center like Chicago or Pittsburgh, a similar outbreak among rail workers. The shop crafts were then on strike.

"The convention of agents of the Communist International and leaders of the Communist Party of America at Bridgman, Mich., last August constituted one of the greatest conspiracies in the history of the United States," the mine workers' narrator continues.

"Intent upon promoting the general uprising of all coal mine, railroad, marine transport and farm workers and carrying their aim to a successful realization before the coal and railroad strikes could be settled, their revolutionary sittings were cut short by the appearance of the county sheriff.

"The raid upon that convention was one of the greatest blows the Communist organization in America ever received. Its members were confined in jail and compelled to shift their activities from the promotion of industrial revolution to the raising of money in an effort to escape imprisonment under Michigan's criminal syndicalism law."

Since then, it is charged, the Communists tried unsuccessfully to foment a general strike among rail workers last November, and among coal miners last April 1, which also ended in execution. Another "one big union" movement was launched among transportation workers, however from an office in St. Paul, Minn. This campaign is alleged to be still in progress, under the directorship of G. H. Kennedy, head of the organization, and O. H. Wangerin, secretary-treasurer.

POWERFUL THEME IN NEW FOX FILM
A powerful dramatic situation that calls for all of Henry B. Walthall's power of vivid dramatic portraiture is portrayed in the new Fox special, "The Face on the Barroom Floor," which comes to the American Theatre today.

Walthall, as the leading man in the production, has the part of an artist who is "framed" and sent to prison. He escapes during a jail-break and jumps into the sea, swimming to a neighboring light-house. There he finds one of the keepers dead and the other ill of influenza. He rushes into the breach takes care of the light, and saves a ship in distress. He wins a pardon through his heroic behavior.

The United States government, incidentally, has recently taken measures to minimize the human element in lighthouse keeping, due to several occurrences of the above nature. A device, recently perfected, is dependent on the light waves.

When it grows dark, the light automatically flashes on. When the sun comes out strong, the light automatically turns off. On a variable day, the light will flash on and off as conditions require. The tremendous importance of this device

Why Dealers Here in Town are selling so many Remington Game Loads

IT doesn't take sportsmen long to get the ins and outs of anything new that's offered them.

When Remington announced the Remington Game Loads last year, not all the men who wanted to try them could do so. Because it was their first year and there weren't enough to go 'round.

But those who did shoot them told the others, and this season there is a demand for Remington Game Loads that has never been approached in the history of the loaded shell business.

Whether you are already a Game Load enthusiast or have yet to shoot your first box—you will be interested in the facts about powder we uncovered in our Bridgeport tests on loaded shells. These are given in the panel at the right.

To the practical minds of the Remington organization, these discoveries indicated that there was just one thing to be done—Fix a safe working standard of velocity, pattern and penetration for each kind of small game.

Make this standard absolute. And load just the right amount of powder to give it—whether it takes an eighth dram more or an eighth dram less.

That is the theory and practice of game loads. Uniform shooting results—instead of a hard and fast loading formula. Powder varies—Remington Game Loads do not.

Naturally, you won't find the weight of powder indicated on Remington Game Load boxes—because the weight is not fixed.

You do not find the name of the powder because Remington takes full responsibility for the shell complete—including the powder.

Go to your dealer's. Get one box of Remington Game Loads and shoot them. We'll leave the rest up to your judgment.

Lazy, Tired and Weak or Full of Malaria

The Body Depends Entirely on the Blood for Strength.

If the Blood is Weak, the Body is Weak. A Poison in the Blood such as Malaria can Weaken the Body to a dangerous degree and render the muscles infirm. Malarial Germs increase and spread rapidly in the Blood.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

destroys Malarial Germs in the Blood and removes the Impurities. It Purifies and Enriches the Blood. It restores Energy and Vitality by creating new, healthy blood. When you feel its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect, see how it brings Color to the Cheeks and how it improves the Appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value. Very Pleasant to Take. 60c.

Liver Pills

A package of Grove's Liver Pills is enclosed with every bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for those who wish to take a Laxative in connection with the Tonic.

These are the Facts disclosed by Remington's Ballistic Tests

A—A given weight of the same kind of powder doesn't always give the same velocity, pattern or penetration.

B—Powder varies batch by batch—even the same kind and make. One batch, for instance, gives a velocity of 325 feet per second. Another may fall as low as 840 feet per second.

C—This is nobody's fault. Powder comes that way.

D—The man who buys his shells by the weight and kind of powder—often misses a lot of game and never knows why.

OBITUARY

Norman Randolph Maury, age 22 years, died at his home in Sherman, Texas, September 5, 1923 after an illness of six weeks with typhoid fever.

The body was returned to Stratford, Oklahoma, the boyhood home of the deceased for interment. Deceased is survived by his wife, father, mother, five sisters and one brother, together with many friends to mourn his untimely death.

To a faithful and patient Christian mother is largely due the Christian character and splendid type of young American manhood whose life had been dedicated to the high and lofty purposes of the Christian religion. Norman was public spirited and popular with his many friends who had known him from boyhood.

Life and Death are two mighty kings and we do not know, we can not tell, which is the greatest blessing.

"Oh death the poor man's dearest friend, the kindest and the best. Welcome the day when our aged limbs are laid with thee to rest."

Yet "See how on the faltering footsteps of decay youth presses, ever gay and beautiful youth, in all her beautiful forms."

So we would bid his young wife, his fond and devoted mother together with his many friends to look up and take courage for He doth all things well. It may be death, just in the happiest, sunniest hour of his life voyage, when every wind is laden with faith, hope and sweet anticipation to be summoned to the gates of death. For after all death is only the gateway into the eternal city. Then why should we seek the longer and more painful route to approach the grave leaning heavily upon staff and crutch? A FRIEND.

FLORIDA RIVERS
FLOW MYSTERIOUS

Travelers Puzzled Over Freak
Course Rivers of Florida Take.

(By the Associated Press)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 11.—The traveler in West Florida, unfamiliar with the scenery of that section, should prepare himself for some curious freaks of nature. Otherwise he may waste unnecessary time groping for an explanation of the strange behavior of three of the state's rivers. The old pea and shell game expression, "Now you see it and now you don't," applies to parts of all of them.

A description of these streams has been written by W. A. McRae, commissioner of agriculture, who quotes a young man who has spent his life on the banks of the waterways. The substance of it follows:

The Wacissa rises in "Beautiful Springs," near Thomas City, on the Tallahassee-Southeastern Railroad not far from the state capital, and flows due south to within three miles of the Aucilla river, where it disappears underground and then reappears in the Aucilla. Logmen have cut a small canal from the point of disappearance to the Aucilla.

The Aucilla rises in Georgia and flows in a southwesterly direction forming the eastern boundary of Jefferson county, Florida. About three miles south of where the Tallahassee-Southeastern forms a junction with this river, the Aucilla sinks and runs underground in a winding way for possibly 12 miles, rising about three miles north of where the Wacissa comes into it from below the earth.

The course of the river is traced by sink-holes, and it can be seen plainly. As proof of this, an object dropped into the stream where it first sinks is seen to rise and pass through the various sinks to the point 12 miles below where it finally comes to the surface.

The St. Marks, the third of the "sunken rivers," is a few miles to the west of the Wacissa and Aucilla. It also rises again a short distance away, making Florida's "Natural Bridge." At this point one of the state's hardest battles was fought in the Civil War, mostly by old men and cadets from the West Florida Seminary at Tallahassee on the Confederate side. A monument was erected there in 1922 by funds appropriated by the legislature, and was dedicated Memorial Day, 1922, to the memory of the Confederate soldiers who lost their lives in the fight.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HUMBLE YOURSELVES:—Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. —1 Peter 5: 6, 7.

SIC TRANSIT.

The great lion on the field of Waterloo is reported in danger of collapse. The base upon which it rests is in ruins.

The battlefield of more than a century ago has been forgotten by most people in the rush to the new field of glory. Where Napoleon and Wellington contended does not concern the tourists who want to see where Foch and Hindenburg were making their fame.

And the lion has lasted much longer than either the Corsican or the Englishman, neither of whom had any other claim upon the requiem of all the glory of might in the picture of a crumbled statue half-covered with sand, bearing the inscription:

"My name is Ozymandias, king of kings;
Look on my works, ye mighty, and despair;
Nothing beside remains.
Bound the decay
Of that colossal wreck, boundless and bare,
The lone and level sands stretch far away."

The lion of Waterloo, the lion of military fame, rests on a foundation that crumbles with time. Why patch it up?—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

C. OF C. FOR SOUTH ROAD.

Secretary Wamer of the Chamber of Commerce states that for sometime that organization has been making plans for improving the road leading south of Ada and connect up with the Johnston county roads to Tishomingo. It is hoped to have everything going soon and the improvements completed by the time the Canadian bridge is ready for traffic. This road will be an important link between the highways to the north and those to Texas. It will be the means of diverting much auto traffic this way and will make communication with the territory to the south much easier.

The man who expects the millenium to dawn through legislation has several more thinks coming. Three-quarters of a century ago the world was told that slavery was the barrier that kept mankind from coming into a state of complete happiness. Slavery was abolished but man found other things that needed reforming. The liquor traffic was banned, women were given the ballot, senators were elected by the people. Ireland was freed, the czar of Russia and emperor of Germany were dethroned, but still the human race flounders along confronted with a state of unrest, menaced by bolshevism and other vexatious issues with the millenium as far away as ever.

Five questions are to be voted on by the people of Oklahoma October 2. However, no one has busied himself campaigning for them and very little is being heard about any of the five. The five bills provide for a bond issue for a bonus to Oklahoma war veterans, a tax levy sufficient to provide at least $15 per capita of pupils in the public schools, a refund of the losses incurred by depositors in failed state banks, to permit death claims to come under the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, and open all elective offices to women.

One thing that may help to lengthen the average human life is the attention being given to the health of policy holders by life insurance companies. The companies are establishing health departments and using every available means to keep the policy holders in good trim. This is much cheaper than paying heavy death losses. As the human race has grown in knowledge, it has increased the average span of life. Man was not consulted about being brought into the world, but he has no intention of leaving it as long as he can hold onto a thread of life.

The County Fair is now in progress and it behooves all who possibly can to attend as often as convenient during the four days it will be on. The News would like to see the county fair made a regular annual reunion of the citizens of the county. The exhibits are a sort of history of the year's work, principally by the farmers and every feature will be of interest to those who have a thought for the development of the country. Tomorrow will be Ada day and it is expected that most of the citizens of the town will be out.

PAYING THE FIDDLER.

And now it is reported that the matter of paying the expense of martial law at Tulsa is becoming a matter of concern. It is said that it is costing the state $1,000 per day to maintain it. To date this has run to about $30,000 and the Okmulgee demonstration cost $8,000 more. With no prospect of calling the troops home any time soon the tax payers of the state have a nice expense account that they will be expected to meet.

ON WITH THE DANCE!

Brown and Sparks To Battle For Champion Belt In Fight Tonight

Interest had reached a record high pitch here today, on the eve of the fight of the season between Claude Sparks, local milt artist, and Hamp Brown, state middleweight champion of Oklahoma City at the Armory ring tonight, according to local promoters.

The fight card under the auspices of the Ada firemen, is heralded as one of the classic ring programs yet to be offered Ada fans.

Both fighters for the main, go have been undergoing strenuous workouts during the past three days and report ready for the bout long looked for by Ada fans.

Sparks, rugged contender in many of the hardest ring battles seen in the state has alto win in what appears to be his crucial battle of his career. Sparks stands out on his bid for state lightweight championship, now held by Brown his opponent for tonight's card.

While Sparks stands out as one of the rugged good-natured battlers of the ring that make the game a success, he has obtained some of the finer points of the game through his ardent work of the past few months and stands out as a real offensive contender.

Brown Carries Record
Brown, while a practical youth in the ring, has many notable victories sought by men who have made the game a longer study than himself. Brown has been commented favorably by the state sport writers for his clean methods in fights and has been lauded on every card on which he has been slated.

Since claiming the lightweight championship of the state, Brown has made his headquarters at Oklahoma City, being a pioneer Oklahoman with his home residence at Lawton. Brown balances the scales at 126 pounds and shares with Sparks, the appearance of a rugged battler.

Some of the notable victories on the record card of Brown are as follows: Sallor Ownsby, k-o in five rounds; Clyde Milligen of Fort Worth, k-o in five rounds; Country Boy Lance of Gainesville, Texas, decision in ten rounds; Mickey Riley of Dallas, decision in ten rounds; Frankie Adam, k-o in seven rounds; Willie Jackson of Oklahoma City, draw in ten rounds; Clark of Sapulpa, k-o in three rounds; Banty Sharpe, lightweight champion of the army, won decision in six rounds in New York; B. Harrison, lightweight champion of the Navy, k-o in four rounds at New York; Young Adair of Ardmore k-o in three rounds for championship of state legion at awton.

Brown is an ex-service man, having an honorable discharge from his service during the World war. Many of his most important fights have been with men in service. Brown has followed the professional ring for the past three years.

Local promoters declare that ticket sales and present prospects are brighter for the Sparks-Brown match than any held here during the season.

A fast string of preliminaries will hold the attention of fight fans until the main go is announced tonight.

STATE HOSPITAL OPENING DELAYED

Hospital for Drug Addicts at Darlington Slated for New Delay.

(By the Associated Press)
DARLINGTON, Okla., Sept. 11.—Opening of the state's new hospital here for the treatment of drug and liquor addicts, scheduled for October 1, has been delayed until about October 15, according to the state board of health.

Original plans called for opening the hospital the first of the month. The building, with its surrounding grounds, had previously been an orphan home and a lease had been given to a tenant-superintendent which overlapped the time between the date of purchase of the institution by the state and the opening date originally set by the state Health Commissioner, Dr. A. E. Davenport.

In attempting to obtain possession of the grounds and building, Doctor Davenport and several employees of the health department are alleged to have forcibly ejected the tenant who subsequently brought charges or riot against the men and was granted an injunction restraining them from entering the place until his occupation contract had expired.

When the state hospital opens September 15, if the resident medical superintendent, Dr. J. W. Henry succeeds in making satisfactory arrangements in the meantime, there will be several dozen patients awaiting treatment, according to Doctor Davenport.

The hospital, established under an act of the Ninth legislature, is for "all persons addicted to the use of any drug, chemical or other deleterious substances, or addicted

Dempsey Claims Coveted Heavyweight Crown After Four Competition Years

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Heavyweight boxing history has been traced back more than a century to 1719, when the game first flourished in England, but the world's championship, held today by Jack Dempsey, dates back only about three decades, to 1890, when John L. Sullivan became generally acknowledged as king of them all.

Seven have held the heavyweight sceptre since the reign of the "Boston Strong Boy," and all but one have been American ringmen. Bob Fitzsimmons, the lanky Cornishman, was the only foreign pugilist to hold the title.

Thus if Luis Angel Firpo of Argentina defeats Dempsey, he will be the second of the line to upse Yankee prowess and the first to take the crown to foreign shores. Fitzsimmons won and lost the title while in this country.

Jack Johnson, famous negro fighter, and Jim Jeffries, each held the championship for seven years longer than any others before or after them. Jeffries retired undefeated but was knocked out by Johnson in 1910 when he attempted a come-back as the "white hope." "Gentleman Jim" Corbett was champion for five years; Jess Willard, four years; Tommy Burns, who succeeded to the title by default when Jeffries hung up his gloves, three years; and Fitzsimmons, two years. Dempsey has ruled the division for the past four years.

In the last championship fight with bare knuckles, Sullivan knocked out Jake Kilrain in 75 rounds at Richburg, Miss., July 8, 1889. Sullivan held sway with the gloves until 1892 when the title passed to Corbett.

WILL JUNK SHORTEST OIL FIELD RAILROAD

(By the Associated Press)

DILWORTH, Okla., Sept. 6.—The world's only railroad using natural gas for fuel—the Oil Field Short Line railway—is about to pass out of existence.

The Short Line railway, perhaps the shortest railroad in Oklahoma and one of the shortest in the entire country, has made application to the corporation commission for permission to abandon its line. The road extends from Dilworth to Clifford, a distance of five miles.

One locomotive is used on the road. When not in use it stands on a side track, under which has been laid a gas burner. Natural gas is used to keep up steam in the boiler while the engine stands on a siding.

The railroad's builders constructed it at the time when Dilworth appeared to be the central development point for a region which operators expected to be an extensive oil field. The oil field never developed, however, and the Short Line failed to pay expenses, they state in their application to the commission.

Sun dials were the only means of measuring time for 1600 years.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Ada evidence—doubly proven.

Mrs. Robert Ellis, 210 W. 8th St., gave the following statement on February 28th, 1917: "I began to have a great deal of trouble with my back. Across the small of my back there was a heavy aching that nearly laid me up. This continued with no let-up until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I bought at Gwin & May's drug store. Doan's gave me relief at once and I now keep them on hand to use should I need them."

On May 2, 1921, Mrs. Ellis added: "I haven't had to use Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time. I still remember the benefit I received from them. They are surely a reliable kidney medicine and I gladly confirm my former statement."

Farmers' Column

By Byron Norrell

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 11.—In a recent issue of the Oklahoma Crop notes, it was stated that the railroads had been receiving a much larger number of cattle at this time of the year than usual. This is substantiated by a compiled report from the Oklahoma National Stock Yards Company in a recent release. Cattle were being rushed on the market due largely to poor pasture conditions arising from the severe drouth prevailing from about June 10th to August 21.

Cattle receipts at the Oklahoma National Stock yards totaled 41,844 for the month of August, 1923 as compared with 37,744 for the same month in 1922. Cattle receipts from January 1 to August 31, 1923 were 216,734, or an increase of 19,503 head over the same period in 1922. Calf receipts increased 4,846 for the month and 19,575 for the year to date. Hogs showed an increase for August, but a decrease of 49,439 for the year to date. Sheep receipts decreased both for August and for the year. Horses and mules both increased for the month and year.

Rains have fallen at intervals for the past three weeks in Oklahoma and have greatly improved conditions over the entire state. On September 2, 12 widely scattered stations in the cotton sections reported from .17 to 2.40 inches. The condition of cotton has been aided materially since the August 25th report. The plant is taking on additional fruit and shedding has become less general. Practically no boll weevil injury has been reported and it is felt that due to unfavorable weather conditions for the ravages of the pest, Oklahoma's cotton loss from this cause will be slight. Pastures are again becoming green and providing ample pasturage in nearly all sections. Grain sorghums have been greatly improved and the crop is now heading. An unusual amount of corn has been cut for fodder this year.

The greater number of the leading daily newspapers of the state are now carrying a daily news item under the caption "Oklahoma Leads." They pertain to the status of farming in Oklahoma, covering each of the 14 leading field crops, and showing where Oklahoma exceeds the United States in the returns on the original land investment. The complete information will be published in folder form for distribution just as soon as the articles are completed.

Fort Worth Drops Last Game of Series to Ada In Game Here Tuesday

While winning the final of the three-game series here Tuesday at the new park by a score of 5-3, the Ada Amateurs dropped the big load of the winnings to Fort Worth who carried off two of the three games of the series.

Tuesday's game turned the tables over the Monday game when the invaders carried off the win with a score of 5-3 in their favor. Ada's victory was tied up in the invincible pitching of Williams, veteran Ada moundman, who set the visitors down with two singles and a lucky four-base wallop over the leftfield fence. Williams claimed twelve strikeouts and allowed only two bases off balls.

Kennedy, Fort Worth twirler, blew the lid in the first inning when the Ada tribe claimed three hits counting for four runs off his delivery. "Spit Ball" Murphy sought to hold up the swaggering mound position but turned in his card when Umpire Wray refused to accept his saliva offering. Kennedy finished the game with only three other hits against him.

Ada came in for a one-inning game in the first inning when batsmen pounced on Kennedy for four runs. The only other run made by the local club during the nine innings of the fray came in the eighth inning when Rutledge singled and scored on an error at the plate.

DeVanny brought the first run home for the visitors when he rapped one over the left field fence. Two singles, a walk and a bonehead play netted the visitors two more runs in the fourth inning.

Rea, Fort Worth right fielder, proved the sensation of the game pulling a series of one-handed stabs which prevented scores for the Ada tribe.

A GOOD JUDGE OF LIQUOR

"Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am now as good as new." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrh mucus from the intestinal tract and lays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays, Druggists. Adv.

ASSAILANT NOW SOUGHT FOR SLAYING OF COUPLE

(By the Associated Press)

ALTUS, Okla., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Frank Ely was slain and her husband perhaps fatally injured by an unidentified assailant who shot them last night as they slept in their home at Olustee, near here. Mr. Ely was between 75 and 80 years old and his wife was said to have been about the same age.

Neighbors heard shots from the direction of their home shortly before midnight but no investigation was made until several hours later.

A mentally irresponsible person, said by the officers to have made threats against the aged couple, is under surveillance.

"Uncle Frank" as he was known and his wife had long been prominent in Olustee and the entire community is aroused over the attack upon them.
